

Median Crossover

Paved median area used to divert traffic across the median of a divided highway. Primarily used during construction staging or in transition to an undivided roadway.